To the Right Worshipful the Mayor, Justices, Aldermen, and Common Council-Men of Great Tarmouth.

Gentlemen,

YOUR generous Encouragement of my Catechetical Lectures, by your Present for my former Labours, and hy an annual Settlement for the continuance of them, make me presume to Publish this Epitome, under your Patronage and Protection.

Nothing surprising, curious or new (save the Method) can be expected on a Subject which is, or ought to be known, and competently understood, even by young Persons, and those of the meanest Capacity.

I have industriously waved all nice Speculations, and needless Controversies, and here present you with the Sum of what a Christian ought to Believe and Practice, in order to be Wise unto Salvation, in as plain a method, and in as few and easy words as I could.

The general Corruption of manners, and the dangerous Errors boldly advanced, and A 2 with with too much diligence propagated, concerning Revelation, oblige those who are sincerely Religious, to prosecute such measures, as may effectually discountenance evil doers,

and put a happy check to prevailing impiety.
And I humbly conceived, the best course to be taken by me, for forwarding those commendable ends, was, to endeavour to season with true Principles of Religion and Virtue, the Minds of the present Youth, who are the hopes of the next Generation.

Tour constant attendance on the Publick Worship of God on his own Day, and your exemplary Piety in his House, give me pleasing hopes, that you'le kindly receive these my honest Endeavours, to promote true Piety, and accept of my hearty thanks for your

TO THE

Inhabitants of Great Yarmouth.

Dearly Beloved,

THE Laws of God enjoyn us to Train up our Children in the way they should go, to bring them up in the Nurture and admonition of the Lord.

The Laws of our Church oblige all Sureties to take care the Children they answer for, may learn the Creed, Lord's Prayer, ten Commandments, and all other things which a Christian ought to know and believe to his Souls Health; and all Fathers, Mothers, Maters and Dames, to cause their Children, Servants, and Prentices, to come to Church, ind obediently to hear and be order'd by the Curate; and the Curate of every Parish diligently to instruct the Children who are sent.

The voice of unprejudiced Reason loudly Proclaims, that a humble obedience to these Divine Commands of God, and the pious inunctions of his Church, will, in the ordinary course of Providence, make Parents happy in their Children, and Children useful in their Generations, and therefore I'le not use many words to enforce so reasonable, pleasant, and advantagious a Duty, as religiously educating your Children must be allowed to be.

Tis my hearts desire that you may be saved, and therefore the chief Business of my Life, is to study the most proper ways for successfully discharging that Sacred Office to which I am called. As an instance hereof, I have Published for your use, this plain, easy, and Methodical exposition of that Catechism your Children are to learn, and I to instruct and examine them in.

The whole is divided into four and twenty Sections, or Parts, each Section begins with an Introduction, containing the Sum of the Questions and Answers, which follow; the Questions and Answers give you an easy explication of some part of your Catechism, and are proved by pertinent. Texts of Scripture, and illustrated by short Notes, which are subjoyed to every Answer, and every Section concludes with Practical Remarks on the Doctrines treated of.

By the divine assistance, I purpose to expound the Catechism, according to the method here laid down, once every year, and if you'le be at the pains to read, what I composed to you'll ciple commexan Chunderst formed by man: Adam by wilfulness breaking his part, forfeited the Divine Favour, the great Advantages he then enjoyed, and stained his descendants with foul Guilt, Gen. 3.

Rom. 5. 17, 18, 19.

The Father of Mercies, would not see his own image Man miserable for ever; and therefore resolved on an expedient, infinitely merciful and just, for restoring him to a state equal, if not superiour to that he had so lately Forseited; which was, to send his only begotten Son, in the sulness of time, to satisfy offended Justice, by suffering Death; and to prevail with God, to admit man, into a second and better Covenant, of which he was to be the blessed Mediator.

This is that Covenant of Grace, into which we were admitted by Baptism, when we were made Christians: and therefore 'tis necessary, before we can be judiciously Religious, to understand the Nature of that Covenant; to this purpose consider,

Covenant.

Q. What Religion do you profess?

A. The Christian Religion.

Q. What doth put you in mind of your Religion?

A. The Pame given me when I was made a Christian.

Q. What advantage is it to be often put in mind of your Religion?

A. I am thereby stirred up, to order my Conversation as becomes the Golpel of Christ.

In the Jewish Church when they Circumcised their Children, they gave them Names, Gen. 21. 3. Luke 1. 59. which distinguish'd them from Persons of any other Religion; and in the Christian Church the Name call'd the Christian Name, which distinguisheth us from all that are not named by the Name of Christ is given at Baptism, the Sacrament substituted in the room of Circumcision: whenever therefore we hear that Name, we are to remember we were dedicated to Christ when that Name was given us; and consequently are obliged to be Holy in all manner of Conver fation, versation, 1 Pet. 1.5. for every one that nameth the Name of Christ must depart from iniiquity, 2 Tim. 2.19. adorn the Doctrine of Christ our Saviour in all things, Tit. 2. 10. and be zealous of good Works, V. 14.

Q. Who gave you your Christian Name?

A. My Sureties, who presented me to be Baptized.

Q. Did they do any thing for you besides presenting you to be Baptized?

A. Yes, they undertook in my Name, what I was unable to undertake for my felf, by reafon of my Infancy.

Q. What is the Duty of your Sureties?

A. To put me in mind of the Nature of my Baptismal Covenant, in case my Parents shou'd neglect it; and to present me to be Confirmed by the Bishop, when I am capable of undertaking for my felf.

Godfathers and Godmothers seem to be borrowed, from a Jewish Custom, Is. 8. 2,3. and in the pureft Ages of the Gospel, that Custom was observed. Sureties make the office of Baptism more solemn than otherwise it would be: They are a great Security to the Church, that the Baptized shall be instructed in the Principles of true Religion: many by the pious Care of Sureties, have been religioully Educated; and all, if not wanting to themselves may improve this laudable CuItom, the bo Love, Office folen his C be Ba their Truf conti gion, stitu stom, to the Glory of God, to the edifying of the body of Christ, to the edifying of its self in Love, Eph.4. 12. 16. Let Sureties read the Office of publick Baptism, and consider in how solemn a manner they engage to Christ, and his Church, for the Children they present to be Baptized, and let them resolve to discharge their Duty, before they undertake this great Trust, and this by God's Blessing would much contribute to the advancement of true Religion, and to the freeing this part of our Constitution from Censure.

Q. Were you born a Christian?

A. No, I was by Nature a Child of wrath, Eph. 2. 3.

Q. How came you then to be a Christian?

A. I was made so by the Sacrament of Bap-tism.

Our Saviour, that our entrance into a Covenant with God through him, might be free from all manner of difficulty and inconvenience, substituted the easy Sacrament of Baptism, in the room of the bloody and paintul one of Circumcision; for he commanded his Disciples to go and teach all Nations, Baptizing them, Mat. 28. 19. And when Peter Converted Thousands, they who gladly received his word were Baptized, Acts 2. 41. So that except a man be born of water and of the Spirit he can't enter into the kingdom of God, John 3. 5. for we are san-

Etified and cleansed with the washing of water, Eph. 5.26. we are saved by the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Ghost, Tit. 3.5.

Q. What are the Privileges you enjoy by being madea Christian?

A. I am thereby made a Member of Chist, a Child of God, and an Inheritoz of the Kingdom of Beaben.

Let us first Inquire into the meaning of these Privileges; and secondly, illustrate the great advantages accruing to us by being intitled to them.

Q. What do you mean by your being made a Member of Chaift?

A. By a Member of Chifft I understand a Member of Christ's Church.

The Church of Christ is a Body, Christ is the head of that Body, and all Baptized Believers make up the Members: so that to be a Member of Christ, is to be a Member of that Mystical Body of which Christ is the Head; for we are members of his body, of his sless, and of his bones, which is a great Mystery, but spoke concerning Christ and his Church, Eph. 5. 30, 32. for as the body is one and hath many Members, and all the Members of that one body being many, are one body; so also is Christ, or the Christian Church, I Cor. 12. 12.

Q. What advantage is it to you to be a Member of Christ's Church?

A. I am admitted into a Society governed by most Holy Laws, and enjoy Divine Aslistances for enabling me to fulfil those Laws.

The Heathens being aliens to the Commonwealth of Israel, were without hope, and without God in the world, Eph. 2. 12. their understandings were darkned, and they alienated from the life of God, through the ignorance that was in them, Ch. 4. v. 18. Nay, the Ceremonial Law of the Jews was made up of beggarly elements, Gal. 4. 9. fo that the law made nothing perfect, Heb. 7.19. Whereas Christians may look into the perfect Law of Liberty, Jam. 1.25. be throughly furnished unto all good works, 2 Tim. 3. 17. and be made wife unto Salvation: Nay, Christians have not only received how they ought to walk as to please God, I Thess. 4. 1. but also of Christ's fulness they may receive grace for grace, John 1. 16. for from the head, viz. Christ, all the Body by joints and bands having nourishment ministred and knit together, encreafeth with the encrease of God, Col. 2. 19.

Q. What do you mean by being made a Thild of God?

A. That by the Covenant of Grace I have received the Spirit of Adoption, whereby I can cry Abba Father, Rom. 8. 15.

The Jews were called the Children of God, Father because they entred into a Covenant with Mercies him, Deut. 14. 1. we therefore entring into a much better Covenant with God through Christ, may cry Abba Father; for we are all the Children of God by Faith in Christ Jesus, Gal. 3. 26. The father of our Lord Jesus Christ having predestinated us unto the Adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, Eph. 1. 3. & 5.

Q. What advantage is it to you to be a Child of God?

A. I am thereby affured of his Favour and Love, of his readiness to hear my Prayers, and of his Mercy in passing by what I do a-mifs.

So near a relation as that of a Father, will banish from the minds of Children all doubts and fears of the tenderest Love! Since therefore God is our Father, we are no more frangers and foreigners, but fellow citizens of the Saints, and of the houshold of God, Eph. 2. 19. Nay, if 'tis but barely possible for earthly Parents to forget their Childron, can we question the affection of our Heavenly Father, who is Love, 1 John 4. 16. whose compassions never fail, Lam. 3. 22. and who is kind even to the unthankful and the evil, Luke 6. 35. Further, it we being evil know how to give good gifts to our ebildren, kow much more shall our heavenly Father give to them that ack, ch. 11. v.13. Laftly, The Father

Q. What do you mean by your being an Inheritor of the Kingdom of heaven.

A. I mean that I have a fure word of promise that I shall Inherit the Kingdom of Heaven.

'Tis usual in Scripture to say we have a thing, when we have a fure word of promise for that thing; now all the promises of God in Christ are yea and Amen, 2 Cor. 1.20. Since therefore we are Children we shall be heirs, beirs of God, and joint heirs with Christ, Rom. 8. 17. for he is faithful that promised, Heb. 10. 23.

Q. What is it to Inherit the Kingdom of Heaven?

A. To enjoy perfect and everlasting Happiness in another world with God and Christ lefus.

The Saviour of the world proposeth to us, the greatest of Rewards, a state of Happiness and Glory which can't be impaired, and which need not be improved: For according to God's abundant Mercy we are begotten unto a lively hope of an inheritance incorruptible, undefiled, and that fadeth not away, I Fet. 1. 3, 4.

1 St. The great Love of God in contriving inherit ev and of Christ in purchasing our Redemption, of Heave ought to fill our Souls with a grateful admiration of the Divine Goodness. If we reflect on our miserable state before our admission into this Covenant, on the invaluable advantages offered to us by it, or on that miracle of a Mercy whereby we are entitled to those Privileges, we must be stupidly unthankful, if our Souls don't magnify the Lord, and all that is within us praise his Holy Name.

2dly, The Privileges mercifully offer'd, powerfully call upon us to live agreeably to our Holy Calling: are you Members of Christ? then never prostitute his Members, and make them Members of an Harlot. Is God your Father? then never provoke to anger that thanscendently good and infinitely pure Being to whom you are so nearly related. Is Heaven to be your Portion for ever? then never forfeit your Title to that glorious inheritance, for the empty pleasures of sin which are for a moment. How can we escape the severest Punishments, if we neglect so great Salvation, and slight what the Son of God purchased for us with his most precious Blood. #### Sect. 2.

Of the First part of our Baptismal Vow, viz. What we Renounced.

THE foregoing Section informed you, of the great Privileges God in Christ offers to man. But tho' by Baptism you are entitled to those Privileges; yet your right unto them will be Forfeited, if you wilfully neglect your part of the Covenant: This is implied in the very Nature of a Covenant; for that supposetha mutual agreement where Promises are made on certain Conditions; if therefore we refuse or neglect to perform the Terms required, we can't in justice hope to partake of the Benefits offer'd. It is incumbent on you diligently to enquire, and ferioutly to confider what the Lord your God requires of you, and expects you shou'd do for your felves.

Sect. 3.

Of what we promised to believe and do, and the Obligations we are under of fulfilling our Baptismal Vow.

ROM the last Section you learned the I Enemies you renounced when you became Christians, and the Reasons why you promifed to renounce those enemies. We are now to enquire into the other branches of our Baptismal Vow. Angels and men are the only Creatures capable of knowing and ferving God; the former do his Will in Heaven, the latter on earth. To Know God is the great thing of Faith, and to Serve him of Obedience; and if we refuse to believe in and to ferve God, we act below the dignity of our Natures, we neglect the principal end of our Creation, and despise what will render us gloriously perfect. The divine Wisdom has made most happy Discoveries of God's Nature, and our Duty to him; fo that by fearching the Scriptures we may be throughly furnished unto all good works. The Divine Goodness has rendred his Commandments far from being grievous; Christ's Toke is easy, and his Burthen

Q. What was the Second thing your Godfahers and Godmothers Vowed for you?

A. That I mould Believe all the Articles of the Christian Faith.

Here let us enquire 1st, what is meant by Believing; 2dly, What by the Articles of the Chistian Fairh; 3dly, Whether we are indispensably Obliged to Believe those Articles; 4thly, When we may be said so to do.

Q. What is it to Beliebe as a Christian?

A. To be fully perswaded of the Truth of a thing on the Authority of God.

There are Scriptures given by Inspiration of God, 2 Tim. 3. 16. And the same God who spake in old time by Prophets, has in these last days spoke to us by his Son, Heb. 1. 1, 2. The reason the Angel gives, why the Child which was Conceived in Mary of the Holy Ghost should be called Jesus, was beraise he was to save his people from their sins, Watth. I. 21. Holhea the Son of Nun was he first man called by that Name, by the Won particular command of God his Name was anged from Hoshea to Jehoshua or Jesus, beouse God designed by him to save his people And I from their enemies, Numb. 13. 16. And 'tis unal for the inspired Writers to call the perons who delivered God's people Saviours. Thus the Lord gave Ifrael a Saviour, 2 Kings 3.5. and he that Converts a finner is faid Save a Soul, James 5. 20. Wherefore much ason is there that the Son of God should ve that Name given him by way of excellen-; since he shewed the way of Salvation to e whole World, he preached the glad tings of Salvation to mankind, whom he bought tha price, I Cor. 6. 20. and redeemed with precious blood, 1 Pet. 1. 18, 19. and delired from the hands of their enemies, from the wer of darkness, Col. 1. 13. and from the wrath come, I Thes. 1. 10. and is able to save to the termost all that come unto God by him, Heb. 25.

To Sacrifice and intercede for the People were the peculiar Offices of Priests, and bot were eminently discharged by Jesus of Nazareth; the first when he offer'd up himself, Hele 7. 27. When he was smitten of God and afflisted, &c. when he was wounded for our transgressions, Isa. 53. 4, 5. and became the propertiation for our sins, I John 2. 1. the latter, being our Advocate with the Father, by ever living to make intercession for us, Heb. 7. 25. Q. Was the Lord's Christ to be a Prophet A. Yes: God foretold he would raise up Prophet like unto Moses.

Moses declared, Deut. 18. 15. That the Lord God of the Israelites would raise up up to them a Prophet like unto him, and St. Pete confirms it, Acts 3.22. Moses truly said unto the Fathers, a Prophet shall the Lord your God raisup. It therefore was necessary, that the Lord Christ should be a Prophet, in order to rende him faithful, as Moses was faithful in all his hould Heb. 3. 2.

Q. Did Jesus of Nazareth perform the ofpeople fice of a Prophet?

A. Yes, in making known to the World

what he learned from God.

The Office of a Prophet was to declare to men what was revealed to them by God: but People Jesus of Nazareth spake the things which his Wither taught him, John 8. 28. he gave to his Disciples the words which God gave him, John Het 17.8. He foretold the things which should fal his Church, as well as the utter Destruion of his Enemies, he declared his own Death, Resurrection, Ascension, and his Mison of the Holy Ghost: and so he eminently alfilled the Prophetick Office; he was of a uth the Prophet, John 7. 40.

A. That of a son.

Long before the Lord's Christ appeared in he Tabernacle of our Flesh, God declared e was his Son, that day he had begotten him, Pfal. . 7. And at the time of his Baptism a voice om Heaven declared this Truth from Heaen, Matth. 3. 17. which was repeated at his Transfiguration, ch. 17. v. 5. and when Jeis was asked whether he was the Son of the lessed, he answered directly I am, Mark 14. 2. And when Peter was demanded who Christ vas, he said expresly the Son of the Living God, Matth. Matth. 16. 16. and St. Paul preached the Christ was the Son of God, Acts 9. 20. so that unless we believe in the Name of the only be gotten Son of God we shall be condemned, Joh 3. 18. for whoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him and he in God I John 4. 15. And he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God shall overcome the world, & ch. 5. v. 5, 10.

Q. Why is the Lord's Christ called God

only Son?

A. Because begetten of the Holy Ghost, and that in him dwelt the fulness of the Godhead by dily.

The Angel told the Blessed Virgin that the Holy Glosst should come upon her, and the power of the Highest should over-shadow her therefore that Holy thing which was to be born of her, was to be called the Son of God Luke 1. 34. Besides, in Christ dwelt the shall ness of the Godhead bodily, Col.2. 9. he was the brightness of God's Glory, and the express Image of his Terson, Heb. 1. 3. and so was in an of the same substance with the Father.

O. Of whom was Christ born?

A. Of the Mirgin Mary, by the Power of the Holy Ghoft.

Tis expresly said, That Mary brought forth first born son, Luke 2. 5, 7. and that Jooh called his Name Jesus, Matth. 1. 25. and is Fail that he knew her not, till she had brought forth her 's Salt to t born; and so she was a Virgin when she nd G was delivered of the Holy Child Jesus; who ed from s born after a miraculous manner by the ok up werful operation of the Holy Ghost; for omfor Holy Ghost came upon the Virgin, and the powindale of the Highest did over-shadow her, Luke 1. flection. Q. Washe truly and properly man?

A. Yes, He was perfect Man, of a reason ble Soul and humane Flesh subsisting.

For verily he took not on him the Nature of A gels, but he took on him the feed of Abraham Heb. 2. 16. The word was made Flesh, John 14. God fent forth his Son made of a Woman Gal. 4. 4. In the Garden his Soul was exceeding forrowful, Matth. 26.38. and when he dy he commended his Spirit into the hands of h Father, Luke 23. 46. And as for his Bod it encreased by the same steps and degrees ours do, and had that incremenent, by eating and drinking: he was sensible of hunger, and cold and pain as we are; his head, hands, ted &c were wounded when he fuffered; fo the he was in all points tempted like as we are,

Q. Why was the Lord's Christ a perfect man?

A. To satisfy the Divine Justice by the ame Nature that offended, to approve himels to Mankind a merciful High Priest, to eave us an example that we should follow his teps, and to qualify himself to judge the world in righteousness.

Christ's end in coming into the world, was oatone for Man's Transgression, as God he ould not fuffer, it therefore behaved him to e like unto his Brethren, that as by one man's lisobedience many were made sinners, so by the Obedience of one man many may be made Richteus, Rom. 5. 19. So that Jesus was made a litle lower than the Angels for the suffering of death, hat he by the Grace of God, shou'd taste death or every man, Heb. 2. 9. Further, by being ike to us he is qualified to mediate between God and man, to intercede for us with the Father, to be tender of our Happiness, and realy to obtain whatever is needful for Soul or Body; and therefore it behoved him to be made ike unto his Brethren, that he might be a merciful High Priest, in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation reconciliation for the sins of the People, for in that he himself hath suffered, being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted, Heb. 2. 17,18. Again, he was to shew man the way to eternal life; and therefore, became man to leave us an example that we should follow his steps, I Pet. Example is the most charming and powerful way of Instruction, he therefore gave us himself for a President how we ought to walk fo as to please God; so that the Christian's Duty is comprehended in this short Leison, Learn of Christ, Matth. 11.19. Last. ly, as a Reward for his Sufferings, Christ was appointed Judge of quick and dead, Acts 17.31. And therefore 'twas expedient he shou'd be man. As God he was qualified to Judge the World in Righteousness with a strict impartiality, and as man he is disposed to temper needful feverity with competent mildness, to consider our frame, and make merciful allowances for our infirmities.

The Jews had not power to execute Christ, being under the Roman Authority, and therefore they delivered him to Fontins Pilate the Governour, Matth. 27. 2. Daniel foretold the precise year when the Messias was to be cut off, 9. 26. Now by our Saviour's Suffering in the Reign of Tiberias, when Pontius Pilate was Governour of Judea, we have thereby the exact time of our Saviour's Suffering fixed; and there being a most punctual agreement, between the year Pontius Pilate was Governour, and the time Daniel foretold the Messias shou'd be cut off, we gain an unanswerable evidence that Jesus was the Messias.

Q. What did Christ suffer under Pontius

Pilate?

A. Hewas Nailed to a Cross of wood, and thereby endured a most infamous and painful Punishment.

Crucifixion was a Roman punishment, efeemed by them the most scandalous and cruel of any, and therefore only Slaves and the vilest Malefactors underwent it: and yet the hardned Jews cryed out against Christ, Crucify him, Crucity him, Luke 23. 21. The they found no taufe of death in him, yet they desired

Pilate that he shou'd die, Acts 13.28. Accordingly Pilate delivered him to be Crucified, Matth. 27. 26. and they Crucified him, v. 35. they slew and hanged the Lord of Glory on a Tree, Acts 5. 30. By wicked hands they crucified and slew him, Acts 2.23. And if you will weigh the Circumstances attending Christ's Crucifixion, you will find never was any forrow like his forrow, Lam. 1. 12. When he was born he wanted Common Necessaries, and yet as mean as his condition was, Herod fought to deffroy him When he shew'd himself to Israel, his own received him not, John 1. 11. his Friends esteem. ed him mad, and he was worse provided for than Foxes or Birds; the Son of man had not where to lay his head, Matth. 8. 20. he was of no reputation, he took on him the form of a servant, Phil. 2. 7. he was despised and rejetted arcass men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief, &c. Isa. 53. 3. And when the time A. Jo came that all things shou'd be fulfilled, the Tho' bare thoughts of his Sufferings made him ex tumblin ceeding forrowful even unto death, Mark 14.34 et to u. . A. To make atonement for the Sins of the world.

The traitor Judas confessed he betray ed innocent blood, Math. 27. 4. Partial Pilate called Christ the just Person, v. 24. Nay the Devil owned him to be the holy one of God Mark 1.24. & no wonder, for he was the spotles Lamb of God, who never offended in thought, word, or deed, being without sin; and so could not suffer on his own account. Wherefore he dyed for our sins according to the Scripture, 1 Cor. 15. 3. he dyed to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself, Heb. 9. 26. he was wounded for our transgressions, bruised for our iniquities, ou Is. 53. 5, &c. and so he suffer'd what the tongues of men and angels can't express, to reconcile us to God, to make a full, perfect fusicient, facrifice, oblation, and fatisfaction for the fins of the world.

umph only That That Christ actually descended into the receptacles of the damned, to tryumph over them, is favoured by what St. Paul saith, that having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly triumphing over them in it, Col. 2. 15. And that the article only signifies that, his body continued in the grave for a certain time, is grounded on this interpretation of thou wilt not leave my Soul in Hell, Acts 2.27. that is, Christ's body was not to lie in the grave so long as to putrise.

But the most probable interpretation of the Article seems this; that as Christ's body was without the least life, and was buried, so his soul was carried, to the unseen regions of departed Spirits, where it continued till his resurrection; he told the thief that he should be with him that day in Paradice, Luke, 23. 43. And just as he expired he commended his Spirit into his Fathers hands, V. 46.

When we reflect on Christ humility, in taking our nature upon him, our Souls ought to be filled, with a pious admiration of his incomprehensible goodness, in appearing, when manifest in our flesh, in so abject and mean a condition, and our mouths ought to be filled with the most joyful praises, since our frail natures are so honoured and dignissed, as that God is become like one of us

Concerning God the Holy Ghoft.

THE impurity and corruption contracted by Original Guilt, fet us at enmity with Holy Gh God; before, therefore we can be reconciled finct Pe to him, 'tis necessary that what is wanting of a When primitive Holiness and Perfection, shou'd be Q. Whappily supplied; accordingly the third Perfrinity fon in the Sacred Trinity, graciously conde. A. B fcends to dwell within us, to make our hearts for ma his Habitation; that so by the influence of his Origin Divine presence, we may cleanse our selves with the from all filthiness of Flesh and Spirit, and persed vity must boliness in the fear of God, 2 Cor. 7. 1. For acceptal our Sanctification is the peculiar Office of the work in Helm Chast. Holy Ghost; We are Sanctified by the Holy for we ar Ghost, Rom. 15. 16. Let us therefore hum it, 2 T bly inquire into the Nature and Office of the Hified, 1 Blessed Spirit, whereby we are sealed unto the session, and any of Redemption, Eph. 4. 30. that so instead insomuc of grieving and quenching, we may comply with the pious motions of the Holy Ghost the Comthe Holy forter, and bring forth the fruit of good li- enable u ving, to the Glory of God, and the eternal is faid comfort of our precious Souls.

A. A Beliebe in the boly Bhoft.

In explaining this Article we must inquire, irst, into the Nature, secondly, into the Ofce of the Holy Ghost. Concerning the first nquire we, 1. Why the Third Person in the racted Trinity is called Holy Ghost, 2. Whether the with Holy Ghost is a Terson, 3. Whether he be a dinciled finet Person from the Father and the Son, and ing of . Whether he be truly and properly God.

of his Original Corruption inclines us to close felve with the evil and reject the good; this depra-For acceptably; but 'tis the Holy Ghost must fe the work in us to will and do what is pleasing to God; Holy for we are chosen through Sanctification of the Spihum rit, 2 Thes. 2. 13. we are washed, we are sanif the stified, we are justified in the Name of the Lord to the session, and by the Spirit of our God, i Cor.6.17.

Instead insomuch that if any man hath not the Spirit of with Christ, he is none of his, Rom. 8. 9. Now when the Holy Ghost so influenceth our hearts, as to ood lie enable us to have our Conversation aright, he ternal is said to make us Holy; Our Sanctification then is the transcendent Blessing of the Holy Ghoft Ghost, as God the Father made us, and God the Son Redeemed us, so God the Holy Ghot Sandistethall the Elect People of God.

Q. Is the Holy Ghost a Person?

A. Yes, he is a Person proceeding from the Father and the Son.

The Father, Son, and Holy Ghost are spoken of in Scripture in such Terms as we use when we speak of Three Persons; and the Catholick Church has fixed on the word Perfon as the properest term to express so abstruct a matter as that is. We are forbidden to grieve the Spirit, Eph. 4. 30. The Spirit is faid to make intercession for us, Rom. 8. 26. 10 search all things, to divide to every one severally as he will, I Cor. 2. 10, 11. to teach all things, to testify of Christ, John 15.26. To reprove the world, &c. ch. 16. v. 8. Nay we can fin against the Holy Ghost, Mark 3.29. and particularly lie against the Holy Ghost, Acts 5. 3. But if we interpret these places in the ordinary fense and fignification of the words, we mult conclude, that they deliver the Holy Ghoft to us, not as an energy or operation, not as a quality and Power, but as an intellectual Subfiftence or a Person.

Q. Is he a Person distinct from the Father

Thus we are Baptized in the Name of the Father the Son and the Holy Ghost, Matth. 28. 19. the three that bare record in Heaven are, the Father, the Word, and the holy Ghost, I John 5. 7. the comforter which is the holy Ghost, the Father will send in my name, John 14. 26. the Grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the holy Ghost be with you all, 2 Cor. 13. 14. In all which places the holy Ghost is made a distinct person from the Father and the Son.

Q. Is the Holy Ghost truly and properly God?

A. Yes, for he is one with the Father and the Son.

For there are three that bare record in Heaven, the Father, the Word, and the holy Ghost, and these three are one, I John 5.7. Lying against the Holy Ghost is lying against God, Acts 5. 3, 5. a sinnever to be forgiven may be committed against the Holy Ghoft, Matth. 12. 31. and Christ is called the Son of God, Luke 1.35. because conceived by the powerful operation of the Holy Ghost, humane speech is so imperfect, that we want proper terms for the persons in the Trinity, and fo are forced to give the fame appellation to each person singly, as that the father is God, and the Son is God, and the Holy Ghost God, and to the three conjointly, and yet not three Gods, but one God. being a manifest distinction made between them in the Scriptures, therefore in the Language of the Church, they are called three persons, and we wanting a title which will suit a divine person which is no creature, we call each of these persons God; the Father, the Son, and the HolyGhost, partaking of one and the same Nature, which is communicated from the Father to the Son, and from both to the Holy Ghost; but the title of God is given in a more emphatical manner to the Father who depends on none, than to the Son who was begotten of the Father, or the Holy Ghost who is of the Father and the Son. And fince reason and Scripture teach, there is, there can't be but one God; therefore we conclude, that these three are so united together as to be but one God; but the manner of this union is above our understanding: however, fince God's word most expresly teacheth these mysterious Truths, we ought firmly to believe, and fubmissively admire them, tho' we can't fully comprehend them.

Q. What do you mean by the Office of the

Now the three Persons in the Godhead are represented in God's word as concurring in the Salvation of Mankind; and the work of the Holy Ghost, in order to that Salvation, is what we understand by his Office.

Q. What is the first Branch of the Office of the Holy Ghost?

A. To make known the will of God to the sons of men.

Prophecy came not of old time by the will of man, but holy men spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost, 2 Pet. 1. 21. The Holy Ghost taught the Disciples all things, and brought all things to their remembrance that Christ had said unto them, John 14. 26. he is therefore called the Spirit of Truth, v. 17. and the Spirit of Wisdom and Revelation, Eph. 1. 17. so that the Scriptures were given by inspiration of God, 2 Tim. 3. 16. being dictated by the Holy Ghost who is God.

Q. What is the Second Branch?

A. To bring our Wills to a Conformity to God's will.

We were all shapen in iniquity, and in sin our Mothers conceived us, Psal. 51. 5. we are by Nature Children of wrath, Eph. 2. 3. so that in f the Fourth Commandment, concerning the Sanctification of God's-day.

ghest V THE foregoing Section treated of the ot only honour due to God's Name, in this c.butal e shall discourse of the honour due to his Vord, at ay. Tho' the Jewish Sabbath was for a Lives at wenant and Sign between God and the Chiland you perpetual Obligation, and positively moral. r allowing God is to be worshipped, and at publickly, we must allow it necessary at times be publickly afcertained for that orship. Nay, were we left at liberty to orship God when we pleased, we shou'd ten neglect that reasonable Service he reires of us, and at last be tempted to live without hope, and without God in the orld. Whereas a pious observation of the ted times for divine Worship, will be of mirable use toward retrieving the Honour Religion, and making men holy, vertuous good. Wherefore, seeing the main Ducontained in the Fourth Commandment obligeth obligeth us and all Mankind, and that fata effects are produced by the neglect, and hap py Consequences attend the Religious Per Reder formance of that Duty. Let us endeavour is eq to understand the Law which follows.

O. What is the Fourth Commandment?

A. Remember to keep holy the Sabbath day, Gc.

Q. What Duty towards God do you lear Glory

by this Law?

A. To Serbe him truly all the days of morder Life; especially on the Seventh day, common Worsh

In explaining this Law inquire we if, Whe mance ther some Portion of our time must be ded art o cated to God's immediate Worship. 2db eldom What part of our time must be thus Dedica foline ted. 3dly, Whether we are obliged tool in the ferve the Jewish Sabbath. 4thly, Why wherefore keep Holy the Lord's-day. 5thly, What muse so I be avoided, in order to avoid profaning the sthat day. And 6thly, How it must be spent ension order to keep it Holy.

O. Must some portion of our time bed dicated to God's immediate Service?

A. Yes: Reason teacheth that if God to be Worshipped, a Holy Rest is necellat for the discharge of that Worship.

And ideavou is equally reasonable that we should not be ment? ut sequester some of our time for the relaxasabbath ion of our Minds, for the improvement of ur Souls, and for the Celebration of God's you lear flory. We can no more do two things than erve two Masters at once; Wherefore, in s of morder to Honour God with our Hearts, and common Worship him without Distraction, we must llot some part of our time for the perforif, Who mance of Religious Duties; and seeing if the ne bed Q. What portion of our time ought to be loted?

A. Revelation teacheth that at least every necessal eventh Day should be Dedicated to God.

Upon God's finishing the Creation, he apmently pointed every Seventh day to be a Holy Rest and Pow himself: God Bleffed the Seventh day, and

Q. Are we obliged to observe the precis

Seventh-day, called the Jewish Sabbath? A. No; for the precise Seventh-day was rose to temporary, and only oblig'd till the fulness time was come.

The observation of the Jewish Sabbath ha teral a peculiar respect to the Children of Israe com it 'twas for a Covenant and a sign to the Jew equen who were under the most strict obligations of God observing the same; for they were to hallo hildre his Sabbaths, they being a sign between God an ot dis them, Ezek. 20. 20. but in the fulness of time and ex when God was manifested in our flesh, the Lattour; which he precise A. We are to Observe that Seventh-day cald the Lord's-day, on which our dear Redeem-fulness Altho' the Fourth Commandment is not to cobserved in all its parts, according to its bbath had teral and direct intention; yet we learn of Israe rom it that 'tis God's Will and our Duty, the Jem equently to call to mind the glorious works gations of God, and his wonderful doings for the to hallo hildren of men: Further, that we shou'd on God an ot distract our minds with constant Cares, is of time and exhaust our Bodies with perpetual Lathe La our; but allow our selves frequent opportunities of Meditating on Heavenly things, and came pursuing our noblest Interests; Nay we learn 19. from it to allow our dependants a due reft being from their Labours, and to be merciful even them to our Beafts. But to these purposes we are to the to allot as much of our time under the Go-own spel, as the Jews did under the Law; for Christ God has vouchsafed us much greater Mercies son t and proposes much greater Rewards than he for the did to them; and therefore we ought to exceed them in grateful Piety: If therefore the W they observed a Seventh-day, much more read a Good Q. Why do you observe and keep Holy that former wenth-day? fon have we to keep Holy a Seventh-day.

Seventh-day?

A. Because on it the greatest things were be ob done for our Souls; Christ Sanctified it by his and t Practice, the Apostles after his Ascension kept Orde it Holy, and the Catholick Church ever find postle has Religiously observed the same.

He who was delivered for our Offences, 'tis be was on this day raised for our justification, Rom ges, at 25. 'tis therefore called The Lord's-day, been Rev. 1. 10. On this day the Apostles werein for t a miraculous manner filled with the Holy Ghost Lord' Acts 2. 4. So that on this day was finished rose, that Miracle of a Mercy, the Redemption of the Co the World by our Lord Christ Jesus; who we a appeared to his Disciples after his Resurredian of the on on this day: for the first day of the Wee 1 Con

Further, after his Ascen-Mercies fon the Bleffed Apostles observed this day; than he for they met upon the first day of the Week to eat ht to ex- Bread, Acts 20. 7. And upon the first day of therefore the Week men were enjoined to lay by them in store more read a God had prospered them, I Cor. 16. 2. so that ay. Itis highly probable the Lord of the Sabbath inloly that formed his Disciples, that 'twas his Will that for the future the first day of the week shou'd ngs were be observed for a holy rest unto the Lord, it by his and that thereupon there were Apostolical sinon kept Orders for observing that day, seeing the A-ever sino postless and Apostolical Churches constantly celebrated that day in its weekly course. And Offences, it is beyond dispute that ever since, in all Aion, Rom ges, among all Christians, the Lord's-day has ord's-day, been kept Holy with Religious Solemnity. s werein for these reasons therefore we keep Holy the finished rose, and Victory over death was gotten; and to uption of the Contentions who refuse hallowing this day is; who we apply St. Paul's words, that we have furrections such custom, neither the Chierobes of God, the Wee 1 Cor. 11, 16.

Q. What must you avoid, in order to avoid Conscien profaning this day?

A. Offending God, by acting contrary to could just his Laws.

A Christian's Life is to be a continual Sab. a Plato thath or rest from sin; for Christ redeemed un for an east to purify to bimself a peculiar people zealous of not we good works, Tit. 2. 14. But if we ferve the he people motions of fin on the day Dedicated to God, the Mind we give that which is Holy unto Dogs, Matth. we can't 7.6. On God's day we are not to do our own the same ways, or find our own pleasures, or speak our own they who words, Is. 58. 13. If then instead of serving to rob him God on his own day we do the drudgery of day in M the Devil and our Lusts, the Holiness of the like Abo day heightens our guilt and aggravates our furd to Transgressions.

Q. What further must you avoid?

A. Bodily Labour, and all manner of work, intirely of fave Works of Necessity, Decency and Charginable to ritv.

The Jews concerning their Sabbath were in many things too superstitious; but let not the minion of fear of Jewishly keeping the Lord's-day tempt us to run to the contrary extream. The Lord God hath of the Sabbath has assured us, that the Sabbath fore he had was made for man, and not man for the Sab- make Con. bath, Mark 2. 27. and with the utmost ex- Q. avoid Conscience be exercised on the Lord's-day, vid. Matth. 12. 10. Luke 13. 14. But if a Seneca ry to could justify the Institution of Festival days, s a necessary Temperament for mens pains, and Sab. a Plato the appointment of Festival Seasons, ned in for an ease and a Cessation from their Toils; shall ous of not we confess that there remains a rest unto the people of God, Heb. 4. 9. Business diverts the Mind, and Labouris painful to the Body; we can't therefore be seriously Religious at the same time that we give way to either. As they who deprive God of his Tythes are said rving to rob him, Mal. 3. 8. fo they who spend his ry of day in Mammons Service, are guilty of the s our fird to hope what they then take in hand hou'd prosper, since the time in which they do it is stole'n from that God on whom they york, intirely depend for Success. Nay, is it ima-Cha- ginable that God shou'd be in our thoughts the other fix days of the Week, when the world and our Lusts have such an intire Dotthe minion over us, as that they'l not allow us test on the Lord's-day. Remember this day Lord God hath Sanctified to himself, what therebbath fore he hath Sanstified let not man presume to Sab- make Common.

ex- Q. But Idleness is the Parent of most sins, ecel- feeing then this day must not be employfafe ed about Business or Labour, how must you fpend fpend it in order to keep it Holy? A. In the publick and private Worshipo God.

The day is fet apart by God to be whole applied to the means for Sanctifying our Natures, or to the practice of that Sanctification on wrought in us by those means. According by shoul ly the Apostles met on this day for Religion hen take Worship, and we must imitate them if we he Lord desire to keep Holy the Seventh day; our mind ness, o are then (or ought to be) freest from Cares, ires; I and our Bodies from Weariness; and confe licate ou quently we fitted and prepared to Worship Gu is day in with a Holy Worship. To this purpose take iness in care that on the Lord's-day you bring your will run selves, by private Devotions and heavenly blemnly Meditations, to a Religious Temper, that is not will you may prepare your hearts, and not belike ter. ## Sect. 14.

Of the Fifth Commandment, concerning the Duty we owe to Parents and Superiors.

HE First and great Commandment is to love God with all the heart, Soul and Mind, and the Second is like unto it, to love our Neighbours as our selves; on these two Commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets, Matth. 22. 37. But feeing the Duties of the Two Tables are joined together by the Eternal Wisdom of the Father; let not man presume to put them asunder. Certain it is, the Royal Law of Loving our Neighbours as our selves, Jam. 2. 8. and the equitable injunction of doing to others as we would they should do to us, Matth. 7.12. are the Commands of God, are exceeding reasonable in themselves, and admirably useful to Mankind; a due observation of them will highly promote the Glory of God, will truly advance the Interest of Religion, and effectually secure the Peace and Happiness of Mankind: Therefore we must Conscientiously discharge the Duties relating to our Fellow Creatures, if we defire to be without Нуро-

A. 99 y love him as as I would honour and to honour 1 are put in S lelf to all 1 nitual Pal self lowlys Hypocrify Religious. For the same God who requires us to Love him with all the heart, commands us to Love our Brother also, I John 4.21. he that hateth his Brother is in darkness, ch. 2. v.9. he that loveth not his Brother is not of God, ch.3. v.10. If a man say I love God and hateth his Brother, he is a Liar, &c. ch. 4. v.20. To live then in the contempt of the Second Table is to affront God, and abuse our selves. Let us therefore endeavour to understand, and resolve to practice our Duty towards our Neighbour, that so our Religion may not be desective, that so there may be Glory to God in the highest, on earth peace, and good will among men.

Q. What is the Fifth Commandment?

A. Honour thy Kather and Mother, that thy days may be long in the land which the Lord thy Godgiveth thee.

Q. What is your Duty towards your Neighbour, that you learn from this Law?

A. My Duty towards my Peighhouzis to whe him as my felf, and to do unto all ment is I would they hould do unto me; to live, honour and fuccour my Kather and Mother, whonour ond obey the Queen, and all that we put in Authority under her; to fubmit my list to all my Governours, Teachers, Spiritual Pattors and Masters; to order my list lowly and reverently to all my Betters.

In explaining this Law inquire we 1st, What A. Q. What is the Honour due to our Natural Parents?

A. To Love them cordially, to obey them respectfully, and to support them, if they need our affistance, cheerfully.

The Foundation of our Duty to our Natural Parents is Love, which is fo reasonable as well as Natural a Duty, that few have the Confidence to own they want it: It is fulfilled when we take fuch courses as will most probably fecure and encrease that affection, and avoid whatever may diminish and lessen it. Q. What is the Sixth Commandment?

A. Thou shalt do no Muzdez.

Q. What do you learn by this Commandment?

A. To hurt no Body by word or deed, to rious bear no malice or harred in my heart.

n this In explaining this Law let us consider, 1st, ce the n what Cases 'tis Lawful to take away the soft Life of another; 2dly, What are the Transed by gressions; and 3dly, What are the Duties rearth uired by this Commandment?

idati Q. Is it Lawful on any account to take aefore vay the Life of another?

e giv A. Yes; Magistrates may cut off Scandahigh ous Offenders, Soldiers may kill their Enepeace nies in a Lawful War, and a private Person Pole may take away the Life of another in defence y un of his own.

Under the Law, if a Brother, Wife, or friend mony and fometimes men moved by an extraordinands ary impulse from God, have been highly compended, and amply rewarded for killing Per-Wife ons; thus Phineah's for thrusting Zimri and rties Cozbi through the Belly that they dyed, had the le af Covenant of an everlasting Priesthood given him, Numb.

Numb. 25. 8. 13. But now no man can tak away the Life of another, without a Commit fion reasonably presumed to be granted h God. And 1st, Magistrates are authorize by him to execute wrath on such as do wi Rom. 13. 4. 2dly, Soldiers in a just war ar God's Ministers, and when they kill their E nemies have a tacit Commission from hims to do; for 'tis God that dispenceth Success and is the Sovereign Protector of Right, h Stands in the Congregation of the Mighry, Pfal 82. 1. giverb Victory to Kings, Pfal. 144. 10. A. To get some honest Calling, in which I resolve by God's Blessing to be diligent.

By this means you'll not only avoid Stealing, but be in a Condition of doing good; for St. Paul enjoins those who stole to steal no more, but to labour, working with their hands, that they may have to give to them that need, Ephes. 4.28. O. What is the Second Rule?

A. To be Content with my present Circumstances.

Content will make you easy to your felves, and Just and Charitable to others, and cause you to have your Conversation without Covetonsnels, Heb. 13.5. Whereas, if we are unealy under our present Circumstances, it being natural to attempt freeing our felves from what is grievous, we shall be apt to profecute unjust Methods to acquire that, the want whereof makes us uneafy? Thus Ahab, because Naboth refused to give him the Inheritance of his Fathers was heavy, would eat no Bread, &c. and took delight in the most Villanous Practices for gratifying his unjust Desires. A. To observe the Royal Law of Loving my Neighbours as my self, and the Golden Rule of doing as I would be done unto.

You would then infallibly do well, Jam. 2.8, your own Breast would be a Court of the strictest Equity; these charitable Maxims would be as good as a thousand Rules, and easily resolve the most dissicult Cases: You would then shun the very appearance of injustice, and make it your employ and delight to go about and do good; make then Self the Standard of your Dealings with others, and you'll find that injustice, fraud, and all uncharitableness would slee away, and be happily succeeded by Integrity, Mercy and Goodness.

Remember the powerful Obligations you are under of being strictly Just in all your dealings, and charitably Compassionate to those who want. It very sensibly wounds Regligion, when men zealous for the Instrumental Duties thereof, neglect Justice and Truth, the weightier matters of the Law; the former ought to be done, the latter by no means must be left undone. You must do justly before you can fulfil what God requires, you must do that which is lawful and right, if you expect to live Religiously here, or enjoy Heaven hereafter: for Justice and Judgment are more acceptable to God than the richest Sacrifices.

Nothing is sooner lost, or with greater difficulty recovered than a fair Reputation; and yet speaking evil one of another, is a reigning fin; the principal Business of most Meetings, and that which gives Conversation a pleasing Relish. Whereas, did we treat each other with an ingenious Candor, were we cautious that our Discourses of others were true and charitable; Conversation would he inoffensive, many untoward differences would be happily prevented, we should keep our Tonques from evil, and our lips that they speak no guile, Pial. 34.13. we shou'd love without disanulation, & be kindly affectionated one to another, &c. Rom. 12. 9,10. To engage us lo to do, let us endeavour to understand the just meaning of the following Laws.

Q. What is the Ninth Commandment?

A. Thou halt not bear falle Witnels againt thy Peighbour.

Q. What do you learn from hence?

A. To keep my Tongue from ebil speaking, lying and Candering.

Inquire we 1st, What are the Transgressions against this Law; 2. What the Duties required by it; and 3dly, What the likeliest Methods to prevent our doing what is forbidden, and neglecting what is required.

Q. What is the first Transgression against this law?

A. Speaking what we know is false, with an intent to deceive.

The fin of Lying makes us odious to God, eath, so infamous to men, like to the Devil, and liable to Hell: 1ft, Lying lips are abomination to ward us the Lord, Prov. 12. 22. therefore you shall not rov. 6. lie one to another, Lev. 19. 11. you must put away now not, lying Lips, Col. 3. 9. 2dly, Lying exposes us ixod. 23. to the greatest Infamy, insomuch that when sistestified Lyars speak Truth they are not believed; ido to him. therefore a poor man is better than a Lyar, Prov. Pray to in in this God to remove far from you vanity and lies, undering Prov. 30. 8.

Q. What is the Second Transgression?

A. Speaking on false or uncertain grounds what will be injurious to our Neighbours.

This is a fin of a very heinous Nature: man that bears false Witness against his Neight ouness, pl bour is a maul, a sword and sharp arrow, Prov. so others; 25. 18. the poison'd Tongues of slanderers linuations bite like Serpents, and sting like Adders, Prov. ster than Q

Q. What are the likeliest Methods to prevent our doing what is forbidden, and obferving what is required?

A. To avoid Inquisitiveness, not to encourage suspicions, to prevent evil speaking in others, and often to think on our own Miscarriages.

An itch of talking and medling with the affairs of others is one main cause of evil-speaking, it makes People learn to be idle, to mander about from house to bouse, to be tatlers and busy-bodies, speaking things which they ought not, I Tim. 5. 13. to prevent it, study to be quiet and do your sown business, I Thes. 4. 11. Further, evil speaking would not be so common were it not pleasing; he that goeth about as a tale-bearer revealeth Secrets, therefore meddle not with him that flattereth with his lips, Prov. 20. 19. Whiherers seperate chief Friends, Prov. 16. 28. therefore discourage them; for as the North-wind driveth away Rain, so doth an anory Countenance, aback-biting Tongue, Prov.25. 23. Lastly, plaing our own Deformities in a due light would make us candid to others; we should then be more follicitous to pull the Beam out of our own eye, than to discover Motes in our Brothers, especially if we consider that with what measure we mete, it shall be measured to us again, Matth. 7. 2.

Q. What is the Tenth Commandment?

Part IV. Sect. 18:

Of Prayer in general, and in particular of the Preface to the Lord's Prayer.

THE are not able of our felves to think a good thought, much less to will and do those things which are acceptable to God, wherefore it must be allowed an invaluable Privilege, that we can come boldly to the Throne of Grace, with a comfortable Assurance, that if we ask not amiss we shall receive whatever is needful for Soul and Body. Prayer is the principal part of Divine Worship, by it we own our dependance on God, proclaim our Belief of his glorious Attributes, and speak good of his Sacred Name: And 'tis the ordinary means of obtaining from Heaven, whatever the Divine Wisdom and Goodness sees needful for us, with respect to this or a better World. But seeing our Prayers may be an abomination to the Lord if we ask amis, or after an undue manner, therefore our compassionate High-Priest composed that most perfect Form of Prayer, called The Lord's Frayer, for the use of his Church and People; that so addressing God in the words of his Beloved Son, our Sup-

A. Making known our Requests to God.

Prayer in its full extent comprehends all that Worship which is immediately paid to God; and either respects the Divine Nature, and then it confifts of Praises for the Blesings imparted to our felves or others; or our lelves, and then it confifts of Supplications for the pardon of our fins and removing of wils, and Petitions for things necessary in this state of Probation; or others, and then t confifts of those Intercessions which we ofter in behalf of our Fellow Creatures; thus mevery thing by Prayer and Supplication with Thanksgiving, we are enjoined to make known our requests to God, Phil. 4. 6. and exhorted to make Supplications, Prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks for all men, I Tim. 2. 1. to that God who heareth Prayer, and to whom all flesh hight to come, Pfal. 65. 2. In plain, when we Pray,

Pray, we come into the Divine Presence and represent before him our wants and defires, with a full belief that he hears and understands all our Petitions; that he is sensible of all our Wants, that he is able to supply all our Needs, and for the sake of Christ will answer the requests made in his Name.

Q. But fince God knows our Needs be fore we ask, is there a Necessity for us to Pray

A. Yes; His Wisdom hath commanded and hisGoodness has encouraged Men so to do

Call upon me, saith God, Psal. 50. 15. b Prayer let your requests be known to God, Phil. 4. 6. We must watch and pray, Matth. 26. 41 for God is rich to all that call upon him, Rom 10. 12. if we ask it shall be given, Matth. 7. 7. if we call upon the Lord, he'le hear our voice, Pfall 18.6. he is nigh to all that call upon him, Pl 145. 11. for we have now confidence in him that if we ask anything according to his will, he bears us, I John 5. 14. they therefore who will not call upon God, have no knowledge, Pfal. 14. 4 God's fury will be poured on the families that call not on his Name, Jer. 10. 25. Consider man's weakness and God's All-sufficiency, and you'ld allow Prayer to be a Natural duty we owe to God, an excellent means for obtaining things Needful, and an effectual instrument for conforming us to the Divine Will.

Our Saviour knew best what we ought to pray for, and the manner how to Pray acceptably; accordingly, in compassion to our infirmities, he composed that Form called The Lord's Prayer to be used by his Disciples; when ye pray use not vain Repetitions, &c. after this manner pray ye, Matth. 6. 7, &c. And when his Disciples said unto him Lord, teach us to Pray as John taught his Disciples, he said unto them, when ye Pray say, &c. Luke 11.1, 2. usual among the Jewish Doctors to compose forms to be used by their Scholars; we can't, without wresting the literal sense of the Texts, deny, but that pursuant to that Custom Christ composed this Form; and 'tis beyond dispute, that in all Ages this Form hath been had in the highest esteem and veneration; and that in respect of its Author, and of its intrinsick Excellency; when our Prayers are offered in the words of God's well-beloved Son, they'll be most prevalent with him: The eternal Wisdom of the Father was most sensible of our Necessities before we ask, and our Ignorance in asking; and fince 'tis thro' Christ's Intercession we hope to have our Prayers heard, we ought to prefer his Prayer to the devoutest Compositions of Angels and men. matter of this Form is sublime and grave, and with is disposed in the most just and natural order 10.22. that can be conceived. Q. How doth the Lord's Prayer begin? A. With this Preface; Dur Father which Heathens, tho' vain in their imaginations, esteemed it necessary to prepare themselves before they medled with Sacred things; and the Jews with a punctual preciseness, purified themselves according to the purification of have our the Law. Since then Christians will allow it for God to be their bounden Duty, to prepare their Hearts before they Pray, not to be hasty to utter any thing before God, Eccles. 5.2. If they confider the Excellency of that Majesty they Address, the prodigious Advantages they may hope for from devout Prayers, and that when they come to ferve the Lord they must prepare their Souls for Temptations, Ecclus. 2.1. they'll be filled with a pious admiration of this excellent Preface, contrived fo as to raife our Affections to a due pitch, to create in us the profoundest Reverence, to establish our Hope and Confidence in God, to cause us to lift up boly hands without wrath or doubting, I Tim. 2. 8. to call upon God in Truth, Pfal. 145. 18. to ask things according to his Will, I John 5. 14. to draw

Q. What is the First Motive, observable in n? this Preface, to engage you to Pray?

which A. Since God is a Father I am encouraged to ask freely.

God on many accounts and indivers respects elves may be stiled a Father; 1st, By Nature, he and made us, and not we our selves, Psal. 100. 3. rified 2dly, By Providence, in him we live, move and n of have our Being, Acts 17.28. 3dly, By Grace, w it for God is our Father, tho' Abraham be ignorant of us, and Ifrael acknowledge us not, utter me having now access by one Spirit to the Father, con- Ephes. 2. 18. Now the Name and Relation of a Father fufficiently implies tenderness, and a willingness to grant whatever is convenient; for if we being evil know how to give good gifts to our Children, how much more shall our heavenly Father, the Father of Mercies, the God of Love, give to them that ask, Luke 11. 13. Confider God as an incomprehensible Being, and we shall dread speaking to him least we die; but consider him as our Father, and then we can claim a particular Interest in him; we can come boldly to the Throne of Grace to pray to a Father, Matth. 6. 6. who will readily do what is asked in his Son's Name, John 14. 13.

Q. What'is the Second Motive?

A. Since God is in Heaven, he is able to perform all our Petitions, and therefore we may fully believe, that we shall receive if we ask not amis.

Heaven is God's Throne, where, in a mol especial manner, he displays the chiefest of his Glories: the phrase then in Heaven emphatically expresseth God's infinite Greatness and Power: Our God is in the Heavens, and hath don what soever he pleased, Psal. 115. 3. As then Fa ther denotes the infinite Goodness, Mercy and Compassion of God, so his being in Heaven de notes his infinite Power and Authority, and confequently affords a mighty encouragement to Pray; for What soever the Lord pleaseth that doth he in Heaven and earth, &c. Pfal. 135.6 He is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we can ask or think, Ephef. 3. 20.

O. What is the first Direction you learn from this Preface, how to Pray acceptably?

A. I learn to make known my Requests in mediately to God himself.

'Tis God that heareth Prayer, Pfal.65.2. 'tis to God our requests must be made known, Phil. 4. 6. We must Pray to the Father, Matth. 6. 6 and We must ask the Father, John 16. 23. A. To Pray with the profoundest Reveence.

God is a Father, therefore Honour is due nto him; and if that wont affect us, let us ecollect that he has Heaven for his Throne, en de nd earth for his Foot-stool, that'tis he alone ouchfafes us Protection and Happiness; and berefore our addresses ought to be made with he Reverence due to infinite Goodness, and inite Greatness, We must Worship and Kneel fore the Lord our Maker, Pfal. 95. 6. we must rve him with reverence and godly fear, Heb. 2. 28.

Q. What is the Third Direction?

A. To Pray for others as well as our felves. We are commanded to make Prayers for all nen, I Tim. 2.1. to Pray one for another, ani. 16. to make Supplication for all Saints, Ephel. 18. Nay, to pray for them that despitefully use Plal w, Matth. 5. 44. Now by faying Our Father.
nd will be are taught mutual Love to the Brethren; od is the common Father of us all, and therefore we ought to make Intercessions for others, as well as Supplications for our selves: Charity obligeth us to Pray for those, who in all presumption never Pray for themselves; and the best of men need the Prayers of others; Brethren Pray for us, I Thes. 5. 25. The poorest Beggar can offer up charitable Prayers for the greatest Monarch; and no Circumstances can hinder a pious man from doing good, by shewing his good-will to men by praying for them.

From hence Learn 18t. To Pray frequently to God; 2dly, To Pray with a devout and humble Fervency: They who live in the continued neglect of this most excellent Duty, live without Hope and without God in the World; but if the Grace of God rule in your hearts you will Pray always, and not faint, Luke 18. 1. You will Pray without ceasing, I Thef. 5. 17. you'll continue instant in Prayer, Rom. 12. 12. you'll Pray three times a day, Dan-6. 10. in the evening, morning and at noon day, and that instantly, Psal. 55. 17. 2dly; Be not content with a formal drawing nigh to God with your lips, but resolve to Pray with a profound Humility, for God love to dwell with those that are of a humble and contrite heart, to draw nigh in full affurance of Faith, nothing wavering, to pour out your Souls with the greatest fervency, & with all perseverance, serving God in Holiness and Pureness of living all the days of our Lives. Of the Petitions respecting God's Glory.

Hetber we eat or drink, or whatever we do, the Glory of God ought to be our fupream and chief End; and therefore in all our Prayers, Supplications, Intercessions, &c. we ought to have a principal regard to it: accordingly our Saviour, who fought not his own but the Glory of him that sent him, in the Three first Petitions of his most excellent Form of Prayer, respected the Glory of our Father which is in Heaven; and to the end that we may with our Mouths Glorify God, and provoke others to Glorify him: that God in all things may be glorified, let us endeavour to understand the full meaning of those Petitions.

Q. What is the first Petition which respects

God's Glory?

Q. What do you mean by Hallowed?

A. That we shou'd speak of and treat with due Reverence, and Honour God, and whatever belongs to him.

To Hallow a thing is to seperate it to a Divine use; thus the Oyl appropriated to a Religious use under the Law was called Holy, and the Jews were a Holy People, because seperated from other People, Lev. 20. 24, 26. and when we speak of and treat the things thus seperated to a Holy use with due reverence, we may be faid to Hallow them; thus I will be Hallowed among the Children of Israel, Lev. 22.32. i. e. they shall pay me the Homage due to my dread Majesty; Hallow ye the Sabbath-day, Jer. 17. 22. i.e. spend the day set apart for my immediate Worship in a Religious and devout As God's Name signifies himself, and all we know of him; fo Hallowing imports giving him the Honour due unto him, by Sanctifying the Lord of Hosts in our hearts, and willingly

Tem. Q. What then doth the Petition fignify?

A. That God may be bleffed and praised from Kings the rising up of the Sun to the going down of the same, God's Pfal. 113. 1,2,3.

In this Sentence, by a rare complication, is ne Re- implyed, a Thanksgiving as well as a Petition; we acknowledge God to be Holy, Holy, Holy, to be worthy to receive Glory, and Honour, and Power, Rev. 4. 8, 11. and we earnestly defire he may be had in the highest veneration: we pray for our felves, that our hearts may be right towards God, that our Tongues may express the respect of our hearts; and that whatever belongs to God may be treated by us with humble Reverence: we Pray for others, that God would work in them a just value for his Word, Day, Ordinances, &c. that whatever hinders true Religion may be deftroyed, and fuch means used, as that God's Name may be greatly feared in the Assembly of the Saints, and had in reverence of all that are round about him, Pfal. 89. 7. In a word, fince God has made glorious Manifestations of his adorable Perfections, and created man capable of understanding them, we in this Petition beg that mankind in general, and we our felves in particular, may treat both in word & deed whatever belongs to him, with a Reverence fuitable to so dread a Majesty.

Q. What is the Second Petition?

A. Thy Kingdom come.

Let us consider 15t, The different acceptations of the word Kingdom; and 2dly, The just meaning of the Petition according to those different acceptations.

Q. What do you mean by Kingdom?

A. It either signifies Christ's Kingdom of Grace, or God's Kingdom of Glory.

Kingdom sometimes in Scripture signifies God's absolute Sovereignty over the Creation; thus, his Kingdom ruleth over all, Pfal. 103. 19. But in this Petition it fignifies 1st, Christ's Kingdom of Grace, consisting not of meat and drink, but Righteousness, and Peace, and Joy in the Holy Ghost, Rom. 14.17. in bringing into Captivity every thought to the Obedience of Christ, 2 Cor. 10. 5. by the peace of God ruling in our hearts, Col. 3. 15. Thus the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand, Matth. 3: 2. And we must first seek the Kingdom of God and his Righteausness, Matth. 6. 33. 2dly, It fignifies the Kingdom of Glory, thus Christ has appointed us a Kingdom, as his Father has appointed unto him, Luke 22. 29. and we are promised an inheritance in the everlafting Kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ, 2 Pet. 1. 11.

Q. What do you Pray for, taking Kingdom in the first sence?

A. That the Gospel may prevail where it

To the dishonour of the Gospel, many who in words profess Christ, in works deny him; wherefore we ought earnestly to defire, that to the external Profession of the Gospel, men would add a humble Obedience to its most just and Holy Laws: and have the Power as well as form of Godlinefs, 2 Tim. 3. 5. Again, many thro' prejudice or ignorance are strangers from the Covenants of Promise, Ephes. 2. 12. wherefore we Pray, that all the Kingdoms of the World would become the Kingdom of the Lord Christ, that Jews, Turks, Infidels and Hereticks may be faved among the remnant of the true Ifraelites, that there may be one fold, and one shepherd, John 10. 16. that all may fee the Salvation of God, Is. 52. 10. and Christ may have the Heathen for his Inheritance, and the utmost parts of the earth for his Possession, Pfal. 2. 8.

Q. What do you Pray for, taking Kingdom

in the Second fence?

A. That Christ would so govern us by his Grace whils we Live, that we may reign with him in Glory when we die.

There is a Kingdom prepared from the beginning of the world, where the Righteons shall shine as the Sun, Matth. 13.43. the unrighteous can't inherit it, 1 Cor. 6.9. The Faithful who love God are the Heirs of this Kingdom, Jam. 2.5. Now 'tis

Q. What is the Third Petition?

A. Thy will be done in Earth as it is in Deaben.

Here consider 1st, Who they are that do God's Will in Heaven; 2dly, What our doing it in Earth as they do it in Heaven signifies.

Q. Who are they that do God's Will in Heaven?

A. The Bleffed Angels, who are God's Miniftring Spirits.

The Chariots of God are Twenty Thousand, even Thousands of Angels, Psal. 68. 17. Thousand Thousands Minister to him, and Ten Thousand timesten Thousand stand before him, Dan. 7. 10. Q. What then do you Pray for in this Petition!

A. That Mankind would as faithfully, diligently, and cheerfully fubmit to God's Will on Earth, as do the Angels in Heaven.

This Petition teacheth us how we must ferve God whilst we live, and how we shall obey him when we come to Heaven; it contains an acknowledgment of the Wisdom, Goodness and Justice of God's Laws, and of his dealings with the Sons of men; as also an earnest Prayer that he would enable us to do that which is pleasing in his sight, Heb. 13. 21. by paying a prompt Obedience to his Sacred Will, and submiting with a pious Resignation to the dispensations of his Providence. When therefore we disobey God's Commands, and murmure at his Dispensations, our Lives contradict our Prayers: therefore we ought to fay with our hearts as well as lips, that we delight to do God's will, that his Law is within our hearts, Pfal. 40. 8. and when we receive evil, bleffed be the Name of the Lord, Job 1. 21. Let the Lord do what seemeth him good, 1 Sam. 3. 18. Not as we will, but as thou wilt, Matth. 26.39.

15t, Do we Pray that God's Name may be Hallowed, then let us Lament and Mourn for the present Profancis; God is worthy of all Honour, Power and Glory; and were our Minds possessed of due Apprehensions of the Holy one of Israel, we should necessarily Reverence whatever has relation to Him; when therefore Religion and things Sacred are treated with Rudeness and Contempt, let us shew a just abhorrence, punish the Insolence if in Authority, and grieve for the Impieties we can't redress.

adly, Do we Pray that Christ's Kingdom may come; Let us then endeavour to bring Religion and Vertue into esteem and repute, by encouraging Goodness and discountenancing Sin. Let us walk so circumspectly as to provoak others to Glorify God, that so Multitudes may be added to the Church, who by adorning their Profession may cause whatever is Praise worthy to flourish and abound.

3dly, Do we Pray that God's Will may be done in earth as it is in Heaven; then let us heartily fulfil what he requires, and patiently submit to his Dispensations, that so we may imitate the Blessed Spirits in Heaven, and follow the Captain of our Salvation, who fulfilled all Righteonsness, and submited under the sorest Pressures, with a Not my Will.

Sect. 20.

Of the Petitions respecting our Wants.

UR Saviour having taught us, to have in all our Supplications, a constant regard to the Glory of God; being a Merciful High Priest, sensible of our Necessities before we ask, and our Ignorance in asking, he graciously allows, and mercifully directs us to beg of God the Father of Lights, from whom is every good and perfect gift, Jam. 1.17. all things that he needful both for our Souls and Bo: dies, that so we may disclaim all confidence in any other means for our Subliftence and Protection, and have maintained in us a just fence of our entire dependance on God, and of our being maintained by his care and bounty. That therefore these pious Ends may be answered, let us seriously weigh the full meaning of that part of the Lord's-Prayer respecting our Wants:

Q. What is the First Petition respecting our Wants?

A. Gibe us this day our dally Bread.

Inquire we 1st, What is here meant by Bread; 2dly, What by day and daily; 3dly, What is the true intent of the whole Petition.

Q. What do you mean by Bread?

A. Conveniencies for the Support of our Natural Life, and Grace whereby we may be enabled to ferve God acceptably.

Bread is the principal Nourishment of our Bodies, and therefore is the best word to express the outward Blessings necessary for the Sublistence of our Beings, in this sence 'tis taken Gen. 18.5. I'll fetch a morsel of Bread, and Gen. 43. 31. fet on Bread, and 2 Sam. 9.7. he shallest Bread at my Table; and when 'tis remembred, that man doth not live by Bread alone, Matth. 4. 4. and that the Soul fo depends on the Body, that unless the one be provided for, the other can't perform its Functions; then Agur's wish will be allowed a good Comment on the word Bread, Feed me with Food convenient for me, Prov. 30. 8. Again, Christ is called the Bread of Life, John 6. 48. and we are exhorted to labour for the meat which endures to everlasting life, v. 27. doing God's will is called Meat, ch. 4. 32, 34. therefore we conclude, tho' Bread primarily fignifies fignifies things needful for preserving the Natural Life, yet secondarily it may signify the Graces and Vertues Necessary for the maintaining a Spiritual Life in us.

Q. Why do you Pray for day and daily

Bread?

A. To prevent my Coveting too much, or being too careful for to morrow.

One great intent of the Gospel was to raise our Affections on things above, and prevent our doating on things below; therefore we are allowed to Pray only for Necessaries, and for Necessaries only for our present Sublistence. The Gentiles indeed fought worldly things, Matt. 6. 32. they threw off their dependance on God, and trusted in their Riches: but we are forbidden to take care for the things of this Life; we are commanded to cast all our care upon him who careth for us, I Pet. 5. 7. Further, we must not be too sollicitous for futurity; fome out of a base and cowardly distrust of God, keep their Riches to their own hurt, Eccles. 5. 13. therefore our Saviour saith, Take no thought for to morrow, Matth. 6. 34. Not that we are denied a prudent forefight; which neither prompts us to any evil, or keeps us from any good, feeing the Scripture hath fent us to the Ant, Prov. 6.6. only we are forbidden fuch anxious thoughts for to morrow, as tempt us to neglect our Duty, and profecute

Q. What then is the intent of this Peti-

A. To convince us that the Necessaries of Life are owing to God's Blessing, and therefore we must not over-value, or rely upon our own acquilitions.

Riches are not always to men of understanding, Eccles. 9. 11. 'tis God must proiper our handy-work and give the encrease, 1 Cor. 3. 6. when therefore our Labours are successful, to God's Name the Glory ought to be given, Pfal. 115. 1. Accordingly Moses cautioned the Jews against forgetting the Lord, and saying in their hearts, that 'twas by their own Power they got Wealth, &c. since 'twas God gave them Power to get it, Deut. 8. 10, Grc. Let not therefore the rich man glory in his Riches, but let him glory in this, that he under stands God to be the Lord, ler. 9. 23, 24. The Petition then imports that we must not immoderately thirst after the things of this Life, or be too much enamoured with them when in our possession, or too follicitously dread their making them wings and flying away; but avoiding covetousness and anxiety on the one hand, and idleness and prodigality on the other, we may comfortably rely on Providence for the things needful for this life, till we be partakers of Life eternal.

Q. What is the Second Petition?

A. And Kozgibe us our Trelpasses as we Forgiveness of sins, the thing asked for in this Petition, was explained in the Creed, we are therefore here only to consider the Condition on which the Forgiveness of sins is desired; and so I shall inquire 1st, Whether Forgiving others is a Condition required to entitle us to the Forgiveness of our own sins; 2dly, What that Forgiveness is which is required of as; and 3dly, the reasonableness of Forgiving others as is required.

A.If we expect God would be merciful to us, we must be merciful to our offending Brother.

If we forgive men their Trespasses our heavenly Father will forgive us; if we Forgive not men their Trespasses, neither will our Father forgive our Trespasses, Matth. 6. 14, 15. When ye stand Praying forgive, if you have ought against any, that your Father which is in Heaven may forgive you your Trespasses, Mark 11. 25. Q. What is that Forgiveness which is required of us?

A. To put on, as the elect of God, Bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of Mind, meekness, long-suffering, forbearing one another, if any man have a Quarrel against any, even as God for Christ's sake forgives us, Col. 3. 12,13.

To fue for our just Rights, and vindicate our aspersed good Names, are acts consistent with Charity, and therefore Lawful. What then God requires of us is, that we would not be easily provoaked, but bear all things, endure all things, I Cor. 13. 5, 7. not rendring evil for evil; but following that which is good, I Thes. 5. 15. Not rendring railing for railing, but contrariwise blessing, knowing that we were thereunto called, that we should inherit a blessing, I Pet. 3. 9.

Q. Why should Forgiving others be so strictly required?

A. Because it makes us like to God, qualifies us for his Service here, and Happiness hereafter.

God is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and of great kindness, Neh. 9. 17. Pardoning iniquity, quity, anger bring o me mu. 23, 24 Brothe rity, v Societ der th and Fo Favour it is mo fed to by hav affected and or therw

Matth. 5. 23, 24. and we must be first reconciled to our Brother. Nay, unless we are in perfect Chais rerity, we are not fit to join in the Heavenly Society made up of confenting hearts. der therefore to qualify us for that Pardon and Forgiveness, which is the Seal of God's Favour and the Assurance of our Happiness; it is most reasonable that we should be dispo-2,13. fed to Forgive the Offences of our Brethren, by having our hearts possessed with that unaffected and univerfal Love, which is the badge and ornament of Christ's true Disciples, otherwise we impudently affront God, and deal cruelly with our Souls.

Q. What is the last Petition?

A. And lead us not into Temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Inquire we If, What is meant by Temptation; 2dly, What by God's not leading us into Temptation; 3dly, What by deliverance from evil; and 4thly, Why we hope to be freed from Temptations, and delivered from evil.

Tempt ation often signifies examining and trying in general; fo God Tempted Abraham, Gen. 22. 1. and he proved the Ifraelites, Deut. 8. 2. and we are to count it joy to fall into such Temptatations; for bleffed is the man that endurech Inch Temptation, &c. Jam. 1. 2, 8. but in this Petition the word Temptation must be taken in a limited sence, as signifying the Suggestions of our Souls Enemies, viz. the Devil who is called the Tempter, Matth. 4. 3. the World, for they that will be rich fall into Temptations, I Tim. 6. 9. and the flesh, Men are when drawn away of their own lufts, Jam. 1. 14. we are not ignorant of the devices of these our Enemies, and therefore are commanded to watch and pray that we enter not into Temptation, Matth. 26. 41. for fuch Temptations if yielded to, will rob us of our Innocence, withdraw us from our Duty, and make us forfeit our Inheritance to a glorious Immortality?

Q. But God Tempteth no man, Jam. 1. 13. What do you mean then by praying to him not to lead you into Temptation ?

A. I mean by that Petition, that God would not suffer those Enemies to Tempt me; or if for his Glory, and the tryal of my Faith, he'll permit them to tempt me, that he would not suffer me to be Tempted above measure.

Even the Dragon, the Old Serpent, the Devil, is bound with a great Chain, Rev. 20. 1, 2. fo that he can go no further than infinite Wifdom will suffer. God then is said to lead us into Temptation, when he permits our Enemies to Tempt us, or withdraws those assistances whereby we are enabled to sight them successfully. What then we beg is this, that God's Almighty Goodness would not suffer our Enemies to lay snares to entrap us; or if for his Glory, the exercise of our Vertues, and the strengthning of others, his Wisdom sees it necessary we shou'd combat with them, that his Grace would support us, and enable us to gain the Victory over them.

Q. What do you mean by being delivered from Evil?

A. That we may become more than Conquerers over the evil of fin, over the evil one the Devil, and over the greatest of evils, Hell.

God is able to do exceeding abundantly above all we can ask or think, Ephes. 3. 20. his Grace is sufficient for us, we can do all things through Christ strengthning us, Phil. 4. 13. and become more than Conquerers through him that loved us, Rom. 8. 37. Therefore he can save us from all dangers Ghostly and bodily, and keep us from all sin and wickedness, and from our Ghostly Enemy, and from everlasting death.

Q. Why do you thus believe and hope for?

A. Because the Faithful God, and his compassionate Son have so promised.

God will not suffer you to be Tempted above that you are able, &c. but with the Temptation will make a way to escape, &c. I Cor. 10. 13. The Lord knoweth how to deliver the Godly out of Temptations, 2 Pet. 2. 9. And Christ being Tempted is able to succour them that are Tempted, Heb. 2. 18. You then trust God will do this of bis mercy and go dness through our Lord Jesus Christ; and therefore Blessing, and Honour, and Glory, and Power be to him that sits upon the Throne, and to the Lamb for ever, Rev. 5. 13.

15t, Do you pray to God even for the Necessaries of Life; then remember you entirely depend on his Providence, and that you must not pretend to go here or there, buy or sell, unless the Lord will that you shou'd live and do this or that, Jam. 4. 13. and when your Labours are successful, glorify his Name, who prosper'd your handy-work, and employ the Blessings vouchfafed to his honour, and then your endeavours will be honest, and your lives religious.

2dly, Do you pray God to forgive you, as you do others, then learn to put on Bowels of Compassion, to be flow to anger, and ready to forgive, to forgive as God for Christ's sake forgives you; that so your own sins may be done away, and you may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need, Heb. 4.16.

Part V. Sect. 21.

Of the Sacraments in general, and particularly of Baptism.

with empty Ceremonies, or exact with Severity, what is in its felf little, and in its effects fruitles: but principally regards the Substantial Duties of Religion, which tend to the advancement of God's Glory, the perfecting Humane Nature, and qualifying Men for Honour and Immortality. However, since our Minds are strongly affected with sensible objects, therefore our Saviour hath been pleased to appoint two very significant rites, which Naturally tend to remember us of God's infinite infinite Mercies to us, and which are fit infiruments to convey to our Souls such spiritual affishances as may settle us in the Faith, raise our affections to a Divine Pitch, stir us up to do what God requires, and enable us to persevere in well doing. These Ordinances are Baptism and the Lord's Supper; the former put in the room of Circumcision, the latter of the Fassover. Circumcision was that Sacrament by which Abraham and all descended from him, enter'd into a Covenant with God [see Gen. 17. from the 7th to the 15th v.] Baptism is that Sacrament which a greater than Abraham, even Jesus Christ ordained, for bringing into his Church such as should be saved.

Q. How many Sacraments hath Christ

ordained in his Church.

A. Two only as generally necessary to Salbation, that is to say Baptism, and the Supper of the Lozd.

Q. What meaned thou by this word Sacrament?

A. I mean an outward and biüble ügn, of an inward and Spiritual grace, given unto us ordained by Christ, as a means whereby we receive the same, and a Pledge to asure us thereof.

Q. How many parts are there in a Sacrament?

A. Two, the outward and viable agn and the inward and Spiritual grace. Let

Before a religious rite can be called a Sacrament, it must have these 3 properties; 1st, It must be commanded by Christ, for the' the Church may appoint rites for decency and order, yet none but the Mediasor of the New Covenant can institute federal acts, to which a conveyance of Divine Grace is tied. 2dly, There must be an outward sign signifying some spiritual Grace; for this is the main difference between Sacraments and other acts of divine Worship, that there must be a material Sign joined with the acts of the Mind, Words, and Gestures, to make those acts Sacraments. adly, This material fign must be a means to convey Grace, and a pledge to assure us of it; for there must be such a form of words joined to the sign, as appropriates that matter to a riligious use, and renders it serviceable to the end of the Institution of the Ordinance. So that by a Sacrament we understand an Institution of Christ, in which some outward Sign is so Sanctified, by a form of words, as to become a federal act, in which are mutual Covenants, on man's part Faith and Obedience, on God's part fecret Assistances are promised. We must then avoid two extreams concerning the Sacraments, as we must not believe they have fuch a Divine quality in them, that by the bare receiving them there is supernatural vertue conveyed to the Soul, unless hindred by mortal fin; so neither must we look on them as mere Rites accompanied with outward figns, which are bare and naked remembrances of divine Bleffings; but with our Holy Church thus profess, That Sacraments exdained by This, be not only badges of tokens of Thisisan mens profesion, but rather they be certain fure Witnestes, and effectual ligns of Brace and God's Will towards us, by the which he dorh work invisibly in us; and dorn not only quicken, but also drengthen and confirm our Faith in him, Art. 25. and with the

Q. When are Infants Baptized, when by reason of their tender age they can't perform them?

A. Because they promise them both by their Sureties, which promise when they come to age, themselves are bound to perform.

That by Baptism you were made Members of Chiss, you learned Sect. 1. here let us briefly enquire 1st, into the necessity of Water Baptism. 2dly, Into the admirable effects attending that Sacrament. 3dly, Into the conditions required of us to entitle us to it; and Q4 4thly, 4thly, Into the lawfulness of Baptizing Infants.

Q. May you ordinarily expect Salvation, without Baptism?

A. Unless a man be born of Water, he can't enter into the kingdom of heaven, John 3.5. and therefore Water Baptism is generally necessary to Salvation.

'Tis the highest presumption to pretend to limit God; tho' therefore we are tied up by the Rules he hath prescribed; he hath not tyed up himself, but can save by what means and methods he pleaseth. However we must affirm, that in the general and common metheds prescribed in the Gospel, Water Baptism is a means of Salvation, that Water is to be used, is plain from these Texts, we are cleansed with the washing of Water, Eph. 5. 26. a man must be born of Water, John 3. 5. here is Water, what doth hinder me to be Baptized, Acts 8. 36. And that Baptism is necessary, is evident from these Texts, Go and teach all Natiens baptizing them, Matth. 28. 19. the like figure whereunto even Baptism now saveth us, I Pet. 3. 21. for he that believeth and is baptized, shall be saved, Mark 16. 16. accordingly Jesus made and baptized disciples, John 4. 1. such. as gladly received the words of his Apostles were Battized, Acts 2. 41. what man therefore dares to forbid Water, that believers should not be baptized ded us some great thing, would we not doit, how much more then when he saith wash and be clean.

Q.What effects will this Sacrament produce?

A. It will free us from the Captivity of Sin, and endue us with ability to live according to God's Laws.

We are by Nature Children of Wrath and difobedience, prone to do the evil we would not, and averse to the good we would. Now Baptism in a great measure, frees us from both these inconveniencies, for as many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ, were baptized into his death, Rom. 6. 3, 4. Christ gave himself for the Church, that he might Sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, Eph. 5. 26. if we are baptized, our sins shall be washed away, Acts 22. 16. In Christ we are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh, Col. 2. 11. Again, we are saved by the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Ghost, Titus 3.5. and are renewed in the spirit of our minds and put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness, Eph. 4. 23, 24. so that by Baptism if we are not wanting to our selves, the body of sin will be destroyed, &c. and our members will become instruments of righteousness to God, Oc. Rom. 6.6. 12, &c.

Q. What is required before we can be Bap-

A. Supposing us capable, we must repent us of our Sins, and believe in God through Christ.

We must Repent as well as be Baptized, if we would have our sins forgiven, Acts 2.38. and he that believes and is baptized, shall be saved, Mark 16.16. we must believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, if we would be baptized, Acts 8.37. for they only who gladly received the Gospel were baptized, Ch. 2. verse 41.

Q. But seeing Infants can't perform these conditions, may they be Baptized?

A. Yes, for they are capable of entring into a Covenant with God, and of partaking of that Salvation which Christ hath purchased for us, and therefore they are capable of Baptism.

Children of believing Parents have as great Priviledges under the Gospel, as under the Law, for the promise is now to us, and to our Children, Acts 2. 39. else were our Children unclean, but now they are holy, I Cor. 7.14. But Children under the Law were Circumcised, therefore Children under the Gospel may be Baptized. Further, Christ took Children in his Arms and blessed them, and said, of such is the kingdom of heaven, he suffered Children to come to him, and sorbid them not, &c. Lastly, 'twas customary among the Jews, when a Person was admitted as a Proselyte to their Religion, to baptize his Children with himself, and therefore we can't doubt but when we read in the Gospel of a Person being Baptized with his Houshold, but that the Children were Baptized with their Parents.

Let as remember seriously the obligations we are under of living fuitably to our Profession, and not presumptuously rely on the bare 'Tistrue, we outward Sacrament of Raptism. are by that Sacred Ordinance admitted into a Covenant with God thro' Christ, and have graces imparted to us for enabling us to perform our part thereof; but then know, that meisher circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcifion, but Faith which worketh by love; Baptifm indeed profiteth if we keep the law, but if me are breakers of the law, it availeth little. Let us then (as we are admonished in the Office of Publick Baptism) remember that Baptism doth represent unto us our Profession, which is to follow the example of our Saviour Christ, and to be made like unto him, that as he dyed and rose again for us, so shou'd we who are baptized, dye from sin, and rise again unto righteousness, continually mortifying all our evil and corrupt affections, and daily proceeding in all virtue and Godliness of living.

Sect. 22.

Of the necessity of receiving the Sacrament, and the weakness of the excuses usually made for neglecting that Duty.

God [Exod. 12.] in remembrance of the destroying Angels, passing over the houses of the Israelites when he slew the first-born in Ægypt. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was substituted, or put in the room of that, by Christ in remembrance of his meritorious Death and Passion, and the invaluable benefits he purchased for us thereby. Concerning it let us enquire, 1st, Into its divine institution, 2ly, The unreasonableness of the Pleas, commonly urged to justify the neglect of this sacred Ordinance.

Q. Why was the Sacrament of the Lord's supper ordained?

A. For the continual remembrance of the Sacrifice of the death of Chaid, and of the benefits which we receive therehr.

Q. What is the outward part or agn of the Lord's Supper!

A. Bread and Wine which the Lord hath commanded to be received.

Let us equire, 1st, Whether the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper be of divine institution. 2dly, What may reasonably be urged for inforcing that institution. 3dly, Whether the Institution thus inforced was to be of lasting use in Christ's Church; and 4thly, If of lasting use, whether there are any excuses to justify our Living in the neglect thereof.

Q. Is receiving the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper a necessary duty?

Yes, For our Saviour just before he wrought out our Salvation, instituted and commanded it.

Some duties are absolutely necessary, others only necessary as commanded by God, to ex-

This duty was in an extraordinary manner revealed to St. Paul, for he received of the Lord what he delivered to the Corinthians concerning it, I Cor. 11. 23, &c. severe Punishments are threatned against those who discharge this duty after an untoward manner, and vast advantages are proposed to those who religiously observe the same, and lastly, the Spirit of God hath taken care in a particular manner to instruct Men how to perform this duty aright.

Q. Are there any other considerations for enforcing this duty?

A. Yes, The danger of despising what God requires, The punishment contemners of the Passover were liable to under the Law, and lastly, the consideration that this is the ast of Worship in which we show our selves most to be Christians.

Nothing must appear little in our Eyes, which is commanded by the Great God, for his commands depending on his Authority, despising them is affronting God. Again, under the Law, the Man who neglected the Passoever without a lawful impediment, was to be cut off from his People, Numb. 9. 13. But if Lastly, the Sacrament distinguishes us from Men of all other Professions, we by that act gratefully acknowledge the infinite love of God and Christ in Man's Redemption, we solemnly commemorate the Death and Passion of our Saviour, we ofter up our selves a reasonable Sacrifice to God thro' the Blessed Mediator, Jesus Christ, and that in a pious obedience to a Command of our Dear Redeemer, utter'd with his dying Breath.

Q. But doth this Command oblige us?

A. Yes, For 'twas to continue in Force to the end of the World.

For as oft as we eat this bread, and drink this cup, we shew the Lord's death till he come, I Cor. II. 26. Accordingly ever since Christianity prevailed, receiving the Sacrament has been esteem'd among all Christians, a very solemn and necessary duty, and to be debarred from it, a very fore and grievous Punishment.

Q. But are there not some excuses which will justify our keeping from the Lord's Table?

A. There are several excuses commonly made, such as if, Men are Sinners, and are afraid afraid to come. 2 dly, They dread eating damnation, by eating unworthily. 3 dly, They have doubts and Scruples which they can't overcome. 4thly, They are with Martha entangled with the cares of this Life. 5thly, They apprehend they shall communicate with wicked Men; and lastly, They are required to receive kneeling, but all these pretences on examination will be found light in the Scales of the Sanctuary, and when tryed by unprejudiced reason to be Counterfeit and Base.

1st, You are Sinners, and defire to be excused. A. You must not come to the Sacrament without repenting of Sins past, and refolving on future Obedience; but God's word hath no way declared, that the pretence of your being a Sinner, will justify your neglect of a politive Command, for you may be as well exempted from all other acts of religious Worship, and so live without God in the World. If you are conscious to your selves that you are Sinners, you have reason to break off your sins by righteousness, and prepare your hearts for this divine Ordinance, which is an admirable remedy to cure the Leprofy of Sin, and to enable you to walk fo as to pleafe God.

A. Remember if eating unworthily be fo offensive to God, then sure contemning an ordinance he is so deeply concerned for, will kindle his fiercest indignation against you; strictly speaking no Person can be worthy of the Sacrament, and many fancy themselves unworthy, when they are not: From the History of the Corinthians, 'tis evident they were guilty of great Uncharitableness, Scandalous immoralities at the very time of receiving, and leaven'd with impious opinions concerning this Ordinance, and which St. Paul stiles eating unworthily: And it must be confessed, that when we come to the Lord's Table without being renewed by Repentance, adorned with Charity, and Purged from base and Sinister deligns, we are guilty of a Sin which will bring Vengeance on us in this or the other World, unless we repent of the same; but all that we can truly infer from hence is, that we are obliged to receive the Sacrament, and to take special care that we receive it after a due manner.

3dly, As to Doubts and Scruples. A. The Text, he that doubts is damned if he eat, doth not respect the Sacrament, but Meats sorbid by the Ceremonial Law, and tho' doubts concerning indifferent things may be deferred to, yet when they concern real duties, they must be over-ruled. We are to use all just and reasonable means for satisfying them, and if they prove invincible, tho' our Minds may labour under them, yet we may discharge the duty with a safe Conscience, because the will is no way concerned in those doubts, and we have all the Faith required of us.

4thly, Are you perplexed with Worldly affairs. A. Consider, No man can justify to God and his own Conscience, so minding the World, as to neglect his Duty, and ruine his Soul; and that God hath been so gracious as to make the eternal interest of our Souls, and a moderate regard to the things of this Life compatible, and therefore the excuse is very trifling and impertinent.

sthly, Are you afraid to Communicate with wicked Persons. A. Remember our Church has taken great care to prevent such from coming to the Holy Table, and if her injunctions are slighted, or by the iniquity of the times can't be put in strict execution; and so Scandalous Persons are admitted, Consider, as private Persons can't debar such from the Sacrament, so they don't offend God or wound their Souls by receiving with them; for they are not accountable for the Sins of others which they could not prevent, they don't join with them in sin, but in a common duty, and that in imitation of the purest Lord foot plau Saints under the Law, and of Christ and his most Holy Apostles.

Lastly, are you offended with the manner of receiving. A. Remember the Scripture hath left the posture of receiving indifferent, that our Church hath taken particular care to prevent Superstitious conceits about kneeling, and only requires it, as 'tis the most humble and reverend posture a Congregation can use, and therefore enjoins it to be used in this most solemn act of Religious Worship.

receiving the Sacrament: this Ordinance is in reality the most proper part of Evangelical Worship, a duty agreable to the Faith, Hope and Charity of a Christian, and which admirably expressent them altogether. If we truly understood the Religion we profess, if we had that fervour and devotion the Gospel requires, if we loved God and Christ with all our Souls, if we were in earnest Christians, and made a Conscience of doing God's will, and complying with Christ's commands, it is not conceiveable we could live in the contempt of this facred institution, without the greatest reluctancy and uneasiness imaginable.

things narrowly and impartially, you will find you deceive your Souls with the shadows and appearances of excuses. If you will take as much pains to understand this branch of your duty, as you readily take to know any thing you are fond of knowing, then all difficulties will foon be overcome, you'le lay aside every weight, and with a willing chearful obedience to the dying command of your Dear Redeemer, you'le do this in remembrance of him.

That you may not be guilty of the neglect of so great means of Salvation, weigh the precious advantages which a due participation of the Lords Supper will produce.

Q. What are the benefits whereof we are partakers thereby?

A. The arengchening and refreshing our Souls by the body and blood of Christ, as our bodys are by the bread and wine.

In order to prevent your entertaining undue opinions of the advantages belonging to worthy Communicants, let us consider. How the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper conveys grace to the Soul. 2dly, What are the advanadvantages which the Scriptures propose to the worthy partakers of that Sacrament, 3dly, What considerations are deducible from the nature, end and design of this ordinance for working in us a just abhorrence of Sin, and a humble delight in the ways of God's Commandments.

Q. What do the bread and wine in the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper represent unto you?

A. The bread represents the Body which was wounded for our transgressions, the wine the Blood which was shed for the remission of our sins, and which are terily and indeed taken and received by the Faithful in the Lord's Supper.

Jesus took Bread and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, take eat, this is my Body, and he took the cup and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, drink ye all of it, for this is my blood of the New Testament which is shed for many for the remission of Sins, Matth. 26. 26, &c. some, because they learn that the body and blood of Christ are taken in the Lord's Supper, deceive themselves with a false opinion, that the bare eating and drinking the Sacramental Bread and Wine, entitles them to all the advantages promised to worthy Communicants. religious frame of Mind, that they shall have fuch a measure of Grace imparted to them, as will work irresistably on their Consciences. Whereas 'tis only the Faithful have a Title to the Promises, and 'tis only the Faithful who watch narrowly their Hearts, after they have received, who can reasonably expect the fulfilling of the Promises. The Sacrament doth not work like a Charm, neither has it any Physical efficacy in it, but 'tis one of the means of Salvation vouchsafed under the Gospel, to encourage and enable Men to adorn their Profession; and if we come duly prepared to this Ordinance, and take good heed to our ways afterwards, that God who works in us both to Will and do of his own good Pleasure, will so Sanctify this Ordinance, as that it shall be a proper means, and excellent help, to forward us in our Journey to Heaven, and to enable us to order our Conversation aright.

Q. What are the advantages the Scriptures propose to worthy Communicants.

A. 18t, That they shall enjoy a happy Communion with Christ. 2dly, That they shall have a joyful Confirmation of God's Favour; and 3dly, That they shall have imparted to them such Divine assistances, as will enable them to live according to God's Laws.

The cup of bleffing which we blefs, is it not the Communion of the blood of Christ, the bread which we break, is it not the Communion of the body of Christ, I Cor. 10. 16. the benefit then is great; with a true penitent Heart, and lively Faith, we receive the Holy Sacrament, for then we Spiritually eat the flesh of Christ, and drink his blood, then we dwell in Christ and Christmas, and fo we enjoy a near union and happy Communion with our dear Redeemer. 2dly, As the Peace Offerings under the Law Supposed the Offerer reconciled to God, and therefore as a fign of their Agreement, he was admitted to partake thereof; eating together being always efteemed a Token of Favour & Friendship. So the Sacrament, the Christian's Peace-offering, is a Sign and Token of the Divine Favour and Friendship; that we are reconciled to our God, and that he bears a special affection towards us; seeing he admits us to his own Table, there to feast on the Body and Blood of his Son in a Spiritual man-3dly, If God will give the Spirit to them that ask, and vouchsafe everlasting Life to them that believe in his Son, can we doubt but that when we eat of the Flesh, and drink of the Blood, of the Son of God, we shall have eternal Life made over to us, John 6. 54. things, Rom. 8. 32. When we partake of his Nature, and receive of his Spirit, by taking his Body and Blood according to his own Institution: When therefore Christians duely Partake of the Holy Supper, they may comfortably hope that divine affiftances will be showred on them, that the Gifts and Graces which descend from above, will be given them in a plentiful manner; their Souls shall be Strengthned, i. e. have such abilities conveyed to them, as will enable them to discharge in an acceptable manner what God requires of them: and Refreshed, i. e. shall be freed from those Troubles which Guilt fills them withal; and fo, instead of serving God with distraction, they will do the work of the Lord with chearfulness and vigour.

Q. What Considerations doth Reason suggest, drawn from the Nature, End, and Design of the Sacrament, to induce you to Believe that Receiving thereof will be productive of most excellent Effects?

A. It Suggests, that if we either look on the Sacrament as a Solemn renewing of our Covenant with God, or as a Solemn Commemoration of our Saviour's Sufferings, that Ordinance will make us abhor the very appearance of evil, and encourage and enable us to persevere in well-doing.

157 a

137, Consider the Sacrament as a Solemn renewing of our Covenant with God. The Sacrament is a federal Rite or Covenant Banquet, between God and the Communicant, and therefore obligeth us to confider the invaluable advantages of the Gospel-Covenant, and the vast danger which will attend the violation of it. Again, Men of common ingenuity perform the compacts with care, which they promise with Solemnity; shall not therefore Christians dread breaking that Covenant which they made before God, Angels and Men, and which they confirmed with the Blood of the Son of God himself. Again, Consider the Holy Supper as a commemoration of our Saviour's Passion, for 'tis not only a Pledge of Christ's Love, but also a solemn Remembrance of his Death, to our great and endless comfort. When we partake of the Sacrament, we have represented to us the odiousness of Sin, and the unspeaka-ble miseries attending it; in a most affecting manner we have laid before us, the unconceivable Love of Christ, and the unutterable Sufferings he endured for our Sakes, and we are then taught, that when we fin against God; we renew our Saviour's Sufferings, and Crucify him a resh; all which will powerfully engage us, if our Hearts

We are fensible that Temptations furround us, and that we need the whole Armour of God to enable us to fight Successfully the Enemies of our Souls. What we must do to be Worthy Communicants.

REceiving the Sacrament is the Solem-nest act of the Christian Worship, and therefore Communicants ought to be cautious that they draw near with a true heart, in full assurance of Faith, having their hearts sprinkled from an evil Conscience, and their bodies washed with pure water, Heb. 10. 22. that so they may present themfelves, their Souls and Bodies . living Sacrifice, holy acceptable to God, which is their reasonable service, Rom. 12. 1. Some fright themselves from the Sacrament, by magnifying the difficulty of Examination, and others deceive themselves with a vain Conceit, that if they can fequester themselves from the World, and their Sins a few days before they receive, and spend those days in Prayers, Reading, &c. they are then worthy to partake of the Feast of the Lamb. Faith is a virtue, without which we can't please God, whilst we live or enjoy eternal Life, when we dye therefore, we ought to examine our selves, whether we be in the Faith, 2 Cor. 13. 5. and that whether we receive the Sacrament or no; but then confider, the Lord's Supper, as 'tis a renewing our Covenant with God through Christ, as 'tis a grateful remembrance of our Saviour's Passion, and the Benefits which we receive thereby; as 'tis a humble Thanksgiving to God for that Miracle of a Mercy the Redemption of the World by the death of his Son; and Lastly, as'tis the means for obtaining from Heaven Spiritual Assistances, for the sake, and through the Intercession of the Sacred Jefas; and then it will appear our indifpenfable Duty to examine our Hearts, whether we understand the Religion we profels,

There are Two special acts of Charity, which must be exercised when we approach the Lord's Table, Forgiving the Injuries which have been offer'd us, and doing what good we are capable of doing: And our Charity must be Universal, must be Unfeigned, and must be built on Religious Principles. Our finful Courses make Examination troublesome; but remember 'tis Necessary, and that you may as well renounce Christianity, because you must Repent, have Faith, and be in Charity, as keep from the Sacrament because you are to examine your selves in those particulars before you Receive. 'Tis true, the Scriptures have not S2 determined determined how often we must Communicate, but there are several Texts which plainly intimate we ought to receive often, which are illustrated, strengthned and confirmed by the Practice of the Apostles, and by the exemplary Piety of the next Ages to the Apostolical; and if we had not such worthy Examples, yet considering the excellent effects which will be produced by frequently renewing our Covenant with God through Christ, and Commemorating our dear Redeemer's Passion, and beging, in the most pressing manner, divine Assistances; and then, if we regard the Glory of God, the Interest of Religion, and the Salvation of our own Souls, we shall with joy and pleafure embrace all opportunities of shewing the Lord's death, by eating of that Bread, and drinking of that Cup.

It is surprizing to see Men forward to receive the Sacrament, in order to Skreen them from Temporal Inconveniencies; whilst Multitudes who have not such an Obligation, can without the least regret continue in the neglect of this heavenly Institution. Men pretend to value their Souls, and that to purchase the whole World with the Loss of them would be a wretched Bargain; if you would not deal deceitfully with your selves, Religiously embrace one of the the most valuable Means of Salvation, and walk worthy of your Holy Vocation; that so the Lord's Table may be constantly furnished with numerous and agreeable Guests, who may so partake of those Holy Mysteries here, as that they may be qualified to keep an eternal Feast hereafter in Christ's own, and in his Father's Kingdom.
